

I am a registered voter and strongly opposed to any and all laws that would make further media consolidation easier for media corporations.